DAY 1

Go! Starting and Exploring

FLIGHT TO Malaysia

The exchange may take several months even a year, but this program offers an opportunity to know and understand the process of doing an exchange program by connecting with potential partner universities. This is what the participants will be experiencing, starting from taking their feet in a plane to Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia.

DATARAN Merdeka

Participants will take the opportunity of seeing the well-known landmark of Kuala Lumpur, Dataran Merdeka. Dataran Merdeka is maintained by the Kuala Lumpur City Hall until this day. Its flagpole is one of the tallest in the world and is situated at the southern end of the Square. A round black marble plaque symbolises the location where the flag was raised for the first time.

BUKIT Bintang

Then, participants will visit Bukit Bintang, well-known as the heart and hub of Kuala Lumpur, with energy pulsing through its streets day and night. It's one of the top commercial and entertainment districts in KL, with a wide range of malls, restaurants, bars, hotels and backpacker hostels lining every street.

UNIVERSITI KEBANGSAAN Malaysia

The second day will start by visiting Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia, one of the top universities in Malaysia. Participants will have a campus tour to see the university's system in a hope that one day they might want to continue their study there. They will also have a sharing session discussing social condition in Malaysia with university's representatives.

COCOA Boutique

Participants then will head to Cocoa Boutique that is described as a chocolate gallery. Participants may see varieties of chocolates of different forms and shape. Free samples are provided to all guests prior to entering the place.

MATIC CULTURAL Performance

The Malaysia Tourism Centre (MaTiC) a division within the Ministry of Tourism, Arts and Culture (MOTAC) is located in building in Kuala Lumpur, which is both an architectural and historical landmark. Participants may do performance or watch available performances.

PETRONAS TWIN Tower

Participants will take the opportunity of seeing the landscape of Kuala Lumpur over Petronas Twin Tower. This tower is one of the tallest towers at 451.9 meters with 88 floors in Kuala Lumpur. Moreover, the Petronas Twin Towers also beared the title of being the tallest twin towers.

CENTRAL Market

Then, participants will visit Central Market to buy gifts and souvenirs from Malaysia.

DAY 3

Exploring

UNIVERSITY OF Kuala Lumpur

On the third day, participants continue their trip to University of Kuala Lumpur. Participants will have a campus tour to see the university's system in a hope that one day they might want to continue their study there. They will also have a sharing session discussing social condition in Malaysia with university's representatives.

PUTRAJAYA

Participants will be heading to Putrajaya, an "Intelligent Garden City" and the Federal Administrative Capital of Malaysia. It has an expansive, meandering man-made lake and many areas devoted to parks, botanical gardens, and wetlands. Putra Mosque (Masjid Putra), on the lake near the prime minister's office, opened in 1999.

AIRPORT Transfer

At the end of the day, participants are expected to have great insights that might inspire them to live a life in wider perspective and knowledge.
